

Propagation of Other Plants

Across

4. Form of reproduction without seeds and spores.[7]
5. Swollen stem or root.[5]
7. A vegetable with 'eyes'. [6]
9. Another name for a stolon.[6]
10. A natural feature that helps to regenerate the Australian bush.[8]
11. Put seeds in soil.[3]
12. Flowering plants and conifers reproduce sexually by _____.[5]

Down

1. The growing together of a stem cutting of one plant to another similar plant.[8]
2. Rooting _____ is placed on ends of cuttings.[7]
3. Piece of a stem or leaf.[7]
6. Ferns reproduce sexually by _____.[6]
8. Another name of wattle.[6]
9. Underground stem of a fern.[7]